You must see an international student adviser before registering for below full-time enrollment.

Only graduating students or near-completion students may request reduced course loads.